

You're Invited!

BAYA: The Bay Area Young Adult Librarians group
presents

"How to Win Friends and Take Advantage of People: Successful School/Public Library Collaboration"

In uncertain times, school and public librarians are increasingly turning to each other for program support, resource sharing, and to advocacy. At this meeting, you'll hear inspiring stories of school/public library collaboration, learn skills for building collaborative relationships in your community, and share experiences and ideas with librarians from all over the Bay! Don't miss this free opportunity to kick-start your collaboration!

bBAY AREA
aYOUNG
y& ADULT
aLIBRARIANS

July 26th, 2011

Berkeley Public Library Main
2090 Kittredge St. at Shattuck

9am to Noon

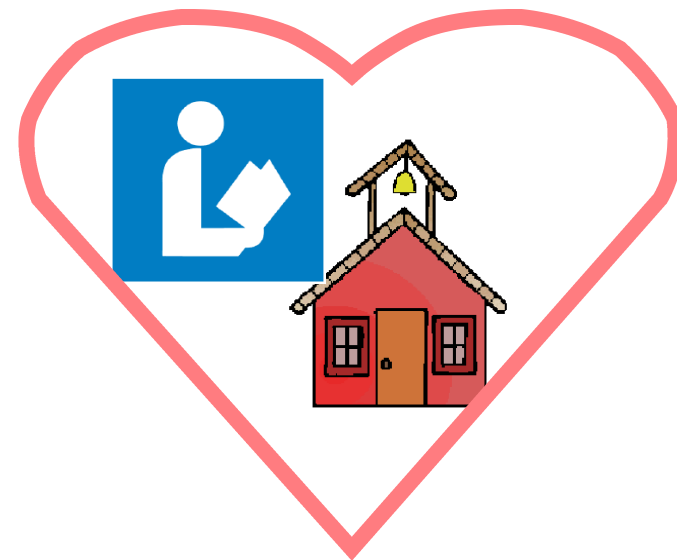

This meeting is FREE! A no-host lunch at a nearby restaurant will follow

RSVP by e-mailing bayalibrarian@gmail.com

You're Invited!

BAYA: The Bay Area Young Adult Librarians group
presents

"How to Win Friends and Take Advantage of People: Successful School/Public Library Collaboration"

In uncertain times, school and public librarians are increasingly turning to each other for program support, resource sharing, and to advocacy. At this meeting, you'll hear inspiring stories of school/public library collaboration, learn skills for building collaborative relationships in your community, and share experiences and ideas with librarians from all over the Bay! Don't miss this free opportunity to kick-start your collaboration!

bBAY AREA
aYOUNG
y& ADULT
aLIBRARIANS

July 26th, 2011

Berkeley Public Library Main
2090 Kittredge St. at Shattuck

9am to Noon

This meeting is FREE! A no-host lunch at a nearby restaurant will follow

RSVP by e-mailing bayalibrarian@gmail.com